1 JOHN

Le	sson	1 John Chapter 4:1-2	1
We	cont	nue our study of 1 John by exploring the fourth chapter.
We	will	be examining the nature and characteristics of both God and Christ.
Ρl	eas	read 1 John Chapter 4, and then consider the following:
1.	Wh	is John referring to in 1 John 4:4 when he refers to "the one who is in you?"
2.	fan	John 4:8, John tells us that God is love. Since we know from earlier lessons that we are adopted as sons into His ily, let us take a closer look at God's nature by making a list of the characteristics that make up God. For each of passages below, identify what "God is"	f
	a.	Deuteronomy 6:4
	b.	John 4:24
	c.	John 17:1-3
	d.	2 Corinthians 13:14
	e.	1 Kings 8:27
	f.	Isaiah 57:15
	g.	Jeremiah 32:17,27
	h.	Psalm 139:7-12
	i.	1 John 3:20
	j.	Isaiah 48:3-5

3.	thi	John 4:17 John tells us that, as Christians, if we have love in our heart, we will have courage; because our life in sworld is the same as Christ's was. Accordingly, let's make a list of Christ's characteristics from the following ses:
	a.	John 1:1
	b.	John 1:2-3
	c.	John 1:4
	d.	John 1:15
	e.	Matthew 28:18
	f.	Matthew 18:20
	g.	Colossians 2:3
4.	Rea	ad John 15:1-12.
	a.	Who is the vine?
	b.	Who are the branches?
	c.	Who is the gardener?
	d.	What are we commanded to do?
	กแร	Questions:
		Questions:
Bo 5.		Questions: John 4:17, John refers to Christians as having boldness in the day of judgment. What will we be judged on? (See 1 Cor. 3:11-15)
	In '	John 4:17, John refers to Christians as having boldness in the day of judgment.
	In ´	John 4:17, John refers to Christians as having boldness in the day of judgment. What will we be judged on? (See 1 Cor. 3:11-15)
	In a.	John 4:17, John refers to Christians as having boldness in the day of judgment. What will we be judged on? (See 1 Cor. 3:11-15) Is it possible that at that judgment seat we could lose our salvation? (See Romans 11:29) What is the difference between our judgment and that of the lost which will occur at the end of Christ's millennial reign? (See
	In a.	John 4:17, John refers to Christians as having boldness in the day of judgment. What will we be judged on? (See 1 Cor. 3:11-15) Is it possible that at that judgment seat we could lose our salvation? (See Romans 11:29) What is the difference between our judgment and that of the lost which will occur at the end of Christ's millennial reign? (See
	In a.	John 4:17, John refers to Christians as having boldness in the day of judgment. What will we be judged on? (See 1 Cor. 3:11-15) Is it possible that at that judgment seat we could lose our salvation? (See Romans 11:29) What is the difference between our judgment and that of the lost which will occur at the end of Christ's millennial reign? (See
5.	In ´a. b. c.	John 4:17, John refers to Christians as having boldness in the day of judgment. What will we be judged on? (See 1 Cor. 3:11-15) Is it possible that at that judgment seat we could lose our salvation? (See Romans 11:29) What is the difference between our judgment and that of the lost which will occur at the end of Christ's millennial reign? (See
5.	In ´a. b. c.	I John 4:17, John refers to Christians as having boldness in the day of judgment. What will we be judged on? (See 1 Cor. 3:11-15) Is it possible that at that judgment seat we could lose our salvation? (See Romans 11:29) What is the difference between our judgment and that of the lost which will occur at the end of Christ's millennial reign? (See Rev. 20:11-15)
5.	In a. b. c.	I John 4:17, John refers to Christians as having boldness in the day of judgment. What will we be judged on? (See 1 Cor. 3:11-15) Is it possible that at that judgment seat we could lose our salvation? (See Romans 11:29) What is the difference between our judgment and that of the lost which will occur at the end of Christ's millennial reign? (See Rev. 20:11-15)