

CONFESSIONS OF A WINNER
- by Don Husted -

When it comes to talent, I ain't got much,
Never wealthy...don't have the Midas touch.
In sports, I tried every kind
But my star spot I could not find!

As a scholar, I had an awful time
Everything was an uphill climb.
Nothing worked, but oh, I did try
But success just passed me by.

But I'm content as you can see
'Cause something wonderful happened to me!
I accepted Jesus and He saved this sinner
Now I am his and he made me a winner!

Now do I have talent? No, still not much
Though now I have the Master's touch
Still not good in sports or scholarship
But he snatched me from sin's death grip!

With Jesus in control my life's really grand
As I'm walking with Jesus hand in hand.
Jesus in my heart just makes it sing
'Cause now I'm a winner in everything!

Greater is in me than in the Earth
Success is mine since my rebirth!
Still no talent, still not smart
But I have Jesus in my heart
He came in and saved this sinner
Now I am His...and he made me a winner!!
