
I have been called many things as thru' life I have come Liked quite a few, not so fond of some
There is one thing I'd love to be called, you see
It would be grand, top drawer for me, the epitome
Something I would cherish right to the very end
That is to be called your friend.

*In His Love
I'm trusted*