

This was written for mom on her 76th birthday

This is a tribute to the most wonderful
Woman on the face of the globe
She has the wisdom of Solomon
And the patience of Job
Who over a half century ago kissed a frog
Who didn't become a prince
And she's made his life absolutely wonderful ever since
And I'm not the only one that thinks so and it shows
'Cause things just seem to be better wherever she goes
Now I thank God every minute, every day of my life
For the blessings uncountable since she became my wife
Here's my message to every creature under God's blue sky
Happiness is spelled D-O-R-O-T-H-Y!!!

You are the sunshine that makes my life bright
The sparkling star that lights up the darkest night
A love as deep as mine, I have a hard time expressing
I praise God always for this ultimate blessing
For the essence of my life, my darling wife!!
